

At Fort Malden in Amherstburg, Ontario, Canada, the men's brick barrack in foreground, built in 1819 and housed ninety-six soldiers. Hough house in background built in 1859, presently used as Administrative Centre. The original of this fort was closely associated with the rise and development of Michigan.

Pub. by Hartman's Studio, Harrow, Ontario

18659-D

post card

Made in Canada
DEXTER COLOR, CANADA, LTD.
CORNWALL, ONTARIO